

National Museums Northern Ireland Seeks Contract Conservators

The National Museums Northern Ireland is seeking expressions of interest from experienced conservators for contracts relating to the redisplay of the Ulster Museum.

The reopening of the Ulster Museum in summer 2009 will have new exhibits covering the areas of history, applied and fine art, natural history and archaeology. Specialist conservation services are required in a range of disciplines including textiles, furniture, fine and applied art, ceramics, natural history material, metals, archaeological and social history objects.

Those interested in tendering for contracts should apply in writing, enclosing a CV or studio statement which includes details of areas of interest, practitioners' qualifications and experience, details of a minimum of two referees and examples of recent contracts held.

Expressions of interest should be clearly marked for the attention of:

Siobhan Stevenson
National Museums Northern Ireland
Cultra, Holywood
Co Down
Northern Ireland
BT18 0EU

These should be received no later than 12.00 noon on Wednesday 5th November 2008

Please note: Submission of an expression of interest is not a guarantee that a contact will be offered or made available.
